

Deseret First Federal Credit Union

Website Privacy Policy

Rev. 2/2019

Deseret First Credit Union is committed to providing you with competitive products and services to meet your financial needs and help you reach your goals. We are also committed to protecting the privacy of our members. By law, we are required to give you this privacy notice. This notice describes our credit union's website privacy policy and practices concerning the personal information we collect and disclose about our members.

Information We Collect:

We do not automatically collect personal information from our website users; however, we do collect and store information on domain names, IP address, and visits to our website. You may choose to provide your location when browsing our web site. Personal information is only collected when a website user fills out a membership or loan application.

Cookies:

Our website uses cookies. Cookies are small text files sent by our web server to a visitor's web browser that provide a way for our website to recognize you and keep track of your preferences. Cookies do not store personal information unless you have provided it through our web site.

Links to Other Websites:

For your convenience, our website contains links to other websites. Deseret First Credit Union is not responsible for the content of the linked sites, and it does not represent either the third party or you, the member, if you enter into a transaction. Privacy and security policies of linked sites may differ from those of Deseret First Credit Union.
